

World Book Day – Friday 3rd March

Dear Parents and Carers

This year we are celebrating the 25th anniversary of World Book Day – with the message for all children 'you are a reader'! It will be filled with lots of exciting, celebratory ways to promote reading for pleasure on World Book Day and all year round.

Dress up an egg for World Book Day: We will be holding a competition to get the children thinking about their favourite books. The children can enter by decorating an egg in the style of their favourite book: this could be as their favourite character, or it could be decorated in the style of book. You could even place the egg in a decorated scene. The winner for each key stage will get a Large Easter Egg and 3 runners up will receive a smaller egg.

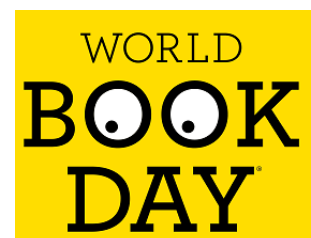

Dressing Up: To help us celebrate World Book Day, we would like all children to come dressed as either; their favourite character from a book, suitably warm pyjamas (It is March) or casual clothes, on Friday 3rd March. Please make sure your child's footwear is still appropriate for an enjoyable day (closed toe shoes only) and remember they will still go outside to play at break and lunchtime.

Book Swap: We would love to provide our children with the wonderful opportunity for them to swap books that they have previously enjoyed with other children in the school. Before or on Friday 3rd March, children and adults can bring in books which they no longer read or want into school to donate to the swap (these books should be delivered to the office who will have an allocated box to place them in). We ask that the books are in good condition, with no ripped, torn or missing pages and no drawn on or coloured in pages. Each child will receive one token to exchange for a book in school. On Friday 3rd March from 3:15pm you and your child can go to the 'Book Swap' stall in the hall, where you can exchange tokens for books.

WBD Book Tokens: We have, once again, been fortunate to receive a £1 book token for every child in the school and pre-school to spend on a new book! These will be given out on World Book Day, so keep an eye out in your child's bag.
